NOTE

Under the law, the "author" of a work made for hire is generally the employer, not the employee. If the employee is a director, producer, or writer, the law may require the employee to sign a separate agreement with the employer to be treated as the author for copyright purposes. For any part of this material was made for hire, check "Yes" in this space provided. Give the employer for your portion for which the work was prepared, as "author" of the part and leave the space for dates of birth and death blank.
